Vedette Directory.

UTAH.

Area, 100, 362 square miles—Population 90,000.

The Capital, Great Salt Lake City, (Population, 17,000,) situate on the great Highway westward, in the grand centre of the golden circle comprising Colorado, Montana, Idaho, Nevada, New Mexico and Arizona. The City is one of the most important points on the great line between St. Louis and Sacramento. Its scenery of mountains is majestic, and its view of islands and Lake is peculiarly picturesque.

The City proper is a square of three miles each side, and contains 260 blocks, of 10 acres each, (each divided into 8 lots and 4 public gardens,) all level streets, running due east and west, and north and south, are 128 feet wide, with shade trees along either sidewalk, and living streams of water flowing by both sides of every street, to irrigate the fruit trees and gardens.

The Territory is divided into twenty counties, the towns of which range from 5,000 to 600 population.

VIA EAGLE BRIDGE, situated near Eagle Rock Ferry, (known in Campbell's and other guide books, as Rickard's Ferry.) The Ferry is in good running order. Emigrants and freighters will find it to their advantage to cross at the bridge, thereby avoiding the danger of crossing a rapid and turbulent stream by means of boats. In connection with the Bridge and Ferry, we have a General Store, where every article required by travelers and stock can be obtained. We have also a Blacksmith Shop, where all kinds of work will be done at moderate prices.
Freighters, to insure a supply of grain at the Bride or Ferry, should address a letter to the proprietors, via Great Salt Lake City, Utah, stating the probable time of arrival, and the amount required.

Horses.—Do not over-drive in hot weather. Never allow a horse to drink when warm, unless he is to be kept moving, as usual. Where they are stabled during hot weather, clean the stables often, litter well, and allow each animal to have a breathing hole in the window or wall before him, if possible. Some horses gall very easily beneath the collar and harness during hot weather, where the parts do not fit well. Wash the wounds with clean water, and apply a paste made of white lead and linseed oil. Then provide a collar or harness that will not chafe.

The comfort of working horses may be much promoted, while in the harness by hanging strips of cloth to the harness so as to dangle about their fore legs. Long and narrow pieces of sheep skin or old buffalo robe, or two or three racoons' tails, sewed together, will keep the flies effectually from the fore legs. Many farmers in the country adopt the excellent practice of attaching a piece of white shirting to the bridle to protect the under jaw and throat from the hot fly.—American Agriculturist.

A SMART little comic periodical, called La Orchestra, is issued in Mexico, containing tolerably well-executed caricatures, not only of the several Ministers of State, but even of the Emperor, who, so far from taking umbrage at these rather hard hits upon public events, is a subscriber to a dozen copies, which are sent regularly by mail among other papers for the amusement of his friends in Europe.

DESERET NEWS.

[illegible] COLUMN.

It has seldom been our province to record a more heartfelt and enthusiastic reception than that which took place at Camp Douglas, Thursday, on the occasion of the return of the District Commander, whose absence for six months had been attended by a series of military marches and successful engagements, with the [illegible] foe, who is the enemy of the white man.

There we saw true, honest and loyal men, each vieing with the other, to do honor to a deserving soldier, and to their friend. We would like to do justice to this occasion with the pen, but did we but attempt to record the speeches as so publish the eloquent, touching and heartfelt tributes, that were shot forth with fluent tongues, we would fail in accomplishing our end.

Suffice it to say, that all who were present appreciated and done good service to the occasion.

At 3 o'clock P. M., the Band struck up "Hail to the Chief" which was a signal for the company to be seated at the tables, which, under the immediate supervision of the Committee of arraugments were laid with the choicest of viands and everything of the substantial order, with elegance and taste that we have seldom seen surpassed.

At the table were seated, Gen. Connor, Lt. Col. Milo George, Lt. Col. Smith, Capt Laurant, A. A. Gen. U. S. Vols, and all the officers of Camp Douglas, Sec'y Reed, Messrs. Chas. H. Heampstead, J. J. Tracy, Maj. Barrow, and a majority of the (so called) Gentiles of S. L. City, with Mr. Broadie of Idaho and Mr. J. McDonald of Bannack city. The pleasant social company proceeded at once to do justice to the viands with which the tables groaned, after which corks flew, champaign flowed and toasts and responses became the order of the hour. The following are the toasts:

General Connor.—Proposed by Lieut. Col. Smith; response by the General.

The Visitors who have joined in the reception of General Connor.—Proposed by Lieut Col. George; response by Maj. J. E. Barrow.

General Connor, an experienced Indian Fighter, and a terror to the whole "Lo Country."—Proposed by Maj. Barrow; response by the General.

Governor of Utah.—Proposed by Chas. H. Hempstead, Esq.; response by Secretary Reed.

Bullets and Bayonets—"Our surest guarantee of peace with the Indians."—Proposed by Capt. Lewis; response by Chas. H. Hempstead, Esq., in his usual eloquent style.

Major-General Dodge.—Proposed by Maj. J. E. Barrow; response by General Connor.

J. J. Tracy and the Overland Mail Co.—Proposed by Capt. D. B. Stover; response by J. J. Tracy, Esq.

The Widows of Utah.—Proposed by Capt. Stillman; a happy response by Capt. M. G. Lewis and Col. Kahn.

Captain Jas. Stillman, Chairman of the Reception Committee.—Proposed by Maj. J. E. Barrow; response by Capt. Stillman, in his usual happy manner.

The Union Volunteer.—Proposed by Capt. Stillman; response by Capt. Jocelyn.

The Bar of Utah.—Proposed by Capt. Lewis; response by Judge Appleby.

Sixth Infantry U. S. Volunteers.—Proposed by Maj. J. E. Barrow; response by Lieut. Colonel Smith.

Lieut. Col. George.—Proposed by Secretary Reed; response by Lieut. Col. George.

President of the United States—proposed by Aaron Stein.

Fair Sex.—Proposed by Maj. J. E. Barrow; response by Lieut. Lot Smith, Governor of Stockton, Utah.

[illegible] our [illegible] Sweet, [illegible] Lake [illegible] Maj. Barrow; response by Jno. Kerr, Esq.

The three gems, Idaho, Colorado and Utah—proposed by Chas. H. Hempstead; response by Mr. Broadie.

Republic of Ireland—proposed by Mr. Broadie of Idaho.

Y. M. L. Association of S. Lake City—proposed by Maj. J. E. Barrow; response by Chas. H. Hempstead, Esq.

The whole entertainment was one of those social reunions which reminded us of that class of men who are ever ready to award true merit where it is due.

The welcome was of that heartfelt nature worthy of the recipient.

There was a single distinct roll of earthquake at five minutes to eight this evening.

Judge Shepheard let off the parties convicted of swearing in illegal voters, on Wednesday, with fifty dollars fine each.

A married woman committed suicide on Sacramento street to-day by cutting her throat. Cause, domestic unhappiness and the loss of her money by investment in stocks. Her name was Bridget Baldwin. Business, lodging-house keeper. The act was committed early this morning, and the razor severed the thorax and reached the vertebræ, but she is still breathing.

October 21.

Gold, 146 1-2 a 147, in New York, Oct. 17.

The Bank of England has raised its interest to seven per cent.

A dispatch from New York to W. C. Ralston says that the credit of California is being injured by exaggerated reports of an alarming earthquake, and asks for correct information. The Chamber of Commerce have answered the dispatch.

From the North.

Seattle, October 20.

Steamer Anderson arrived from Victoria last evening with $200,000 treasure from Cariboo. Reached Victoria on the 14th.

The body of Antonie Lucomage, the murderer of Collector Ogilvie, has been found in the woods near Randim's. It is believed he starved to death.

The Bridge river prospecting party has returned. They report finding a stretch of seventy miles on the south fork of Bridge river, where from six to thirty dollars a day can be had.

IDAHO ITEMS.—The Owyhee Avalanche, 21st inst., has the following:

SALE OF FEET.—Twenty thousand dollars in cash was the price paid, a few days since, for one hundred feet of the 1st extension south on the Morning Star ledge. Four hundred feet of the West Fork of the Oro Fino ledge brought fifteen thousand dollars. These purchases were made by capitalists who came here on that business.

It is a fact that, a few days ago, $109 was obtained from less than twenty pounds of Poorman rock, by the hand mortar process. It is, also, true that the operation was performed carelessly and at least $30 wasted.

[At that rate, the owners of the Poorman ledge will become Richmen mighty fast! ED.]

An Idaho City correspondent of the Boise City Statesman, says, among other things about Idaho city:

Other mills and mines are in full blast here, to wit: two at Summit Flat, on the King & Specimen ledges, 15 stamps; one on the Elkhorn ledge, 5 stamps; two on the Illinois, 20 stamps; one on London, 5 stamps; one on the Centerville, 5 stamps; one on the Buffalo, 5 stamps. At this rate of progress Idaho will soon be the means of establishing more mints in the Pacific coast.

The Idaho mill and mine, at South Boise, has been sold for $140,000 in gold coin, to a Pittsburg company.

The Statesman of the 21st., has the following:

KILLED.—Mr. John Ewing, a man well known in this country, on Sunday morning last by Oscar Higgey, in an affray originating out of a game of cards. Ewing lived four hours. We have not learned the particulars. Whisky, very likely, was the cause of the difficulty.

The Lewiston, North Idaho Radiator, of Oct. 13th, says: There is talk of putting a new line of ocean steamers on the trade between Portland and San Francisco, to be owned and controlled by Oregon capitalists, and gives the Seattle (Washington Ter.) Gazette as authority. Also that, a section of the submarine cable, designed to be laid across the Willamette river, at Portland, Oregon, has already arrived at that place.

SAGE-BRUSH.—Among the leading rebels who left the country and declare they will never return, are General Magruder, Kirby Smith, Preston, Hindman, Price, and Breckinridge.

THE SALT LAKE SAINTS.

In the name of the prophet—Smith, does any other country blessed with Christian civilization offer an example of such gross ware of wordly cunning and frothy fanaticism, of business sense and burlesque piety, as ours presents in the polygamous and thrifty community of Utah!

* * * * * * *

A perusal of the report of the proceedings (of the late Mormon Conference) which appears in the News satisfies us that the "teachings" were much "varied in character," but as to the value of the instruction to be derived therefrom, unless considered as an illustration of unusually practical fanaticism, the Gentiles must have their own opinion. Brigham presided, of course, and Heber C. Kimball, Orson Hyde, John Taylor and other conspicuous champions of the faith ventilated their minds upon all manner of subjects, from divine government to the manufactures of molasses. Such a confusion of spiritual and material instruction could be found in no other ostensibly religious gathering in America. We judge that the proceedings of the Conference were not conducted in accordance with ordinary notions of transacting a certain amount of business and then adjourning, for we observe that Elder John Taylor moved "That we continue this Conference until the spirit of the Lord, through His servants, says it is enough." This was carried unanimously, "the vast congregation rising to their feet." When the speakers and the singers had exhausted their wind, it was agreed that the divine will had been manifested and Brigham, the annointed interpreter, of course, blessed and dismissed his flock.

* * * * * * *

Brigham Young held and had no hesitation in announcing the novel and startling doctrine that the Deity is a spirit. The News tells us—"Speaking of God, He showed that He is a spirit, but He is a personage of tabernacle—of glorified tabernacle—He is a spiritual, resurrected, glorified being." Surely the people who accept such effusions as these from their leaders as the fruits of divine inspiration must be densely ignorant, and urgently in need of Christian education. The Mormon recruits are obtained among the lowest classes in Europe, who will take advantage of any opportunity to reach a country where they can obtain a better reward for their toil. Their physical condition is improved by the change, but they remain mentally benighted and the Mormon Yankees are constantly enabled to sway them by preaching down to their level or giving them an impression that they are ruled by persons of awful sanctity. They want an efficient system of common schools over in Utah!

GEN. MCDOWELL pays the following handsome tribute to the California and Nevada Volunteers, in issuing a late order for the "muster out" of the Sixth and Eighth Regiments of California Volunteers:

The occasion of the discharge of these troops is taken by the Department Commander to express his appreciation of the uniform good conduct, faithful service and soldierly bearing of the California and Nevada Volunteers. With few, very few, and mostly unimportant exceptions, they have conducted themselves throughout his entire command with great credit to themselves, to their State, and to the country; and it is with sincere regret he sees draw near the day which is to sever the official connection with the United States military service of a body of men so well calculated in every way to maintain its honor and to add to its glory. On their return to civil life they will carry with them his best and kindest wishes for their prosperity and happiness.

UNPUBLISHED LETTER OF MR. LINCOLN.—The Washington Chronicle prints the following note of the late president to Mr. Hackett, the comedian, in relation to newspaper criticisms of a previous letter. It is characteristic:—

My note to you I certainly did not expect to see in print; yet I have not been much shocked by the newspaper comments upon it. Those comments constitute a fair specimen of what has accrued me through life. I have endured a great deal of ridicule without much malice, and have received a great deal of kindness, not quite free from ridicule. I am used to it. Yours, truly,

A. LINCOLN.

THE following is an extract from a private letter of General Robert E. Lee:

"It should be the object of all to avoid controversy, to allay passion, give free scope to reason and every kindly feeling. By doing this, and encouraging our citizens to engage in the duties of life with all their heart and mind, with a determination not to be turned aside by thoughts of the past or fears of the future, our country will not only be restored in material prosperity, but will be advanced in science, in virtue, and in religion."

THERE will be two good schools in full operation, in this city, in a few days. One is conducted by Miss Lovell—a young lady every way competent to the task, being well educated and energetic in a high degree. The school lately conducted by Professor Patton will be continued by Mr. D. P. Newcomer, a young gentleman lately a graduate of Bethany College, West Va., and well qualified for the important task he has undertaken.—Virginia, Mo., Post.

SECRETARY Wells lays down his platform on the negro suffrage question as follows, in reply to an inquiry from a friend in Connecticut:

WASHINGTON, Sept. 26, 1865. I favor intelligence and color, as the qualification for suffrage in Connecticut.

GIDEON WELLS.

THE Salt Lake Union Vedette is jealous in its denunciation of Polygamy, Asian prostitution. Brigham and his satellites may tremble, but honest men, everywhere, will respect the brave, fearless Vedette.—Leavenworth Bulletin, Oct. 11.

Local and Miscellaneous.

Gov. Dennis and Secretary, with a few others, are on a short visit to Box Elder.

Idaho City, says an exchange, has more church room in proportion to the church-going, than any other place on the Pacific.

The latest word yet coined by the newspaper minds is put in circulation by the New York Times. It is special telegrammatists.

Sale of Subsistence Stores.—Public auction sale of [illegible] at settlement under the above heading, by Capt. Bennett, U. S. at Camp Douglas. Sealed proposals received up to Nov. 3d. See advertisement.

The rush to the Pikeite (Pa.) post office, in the oil country, is so great, that an advanced position in the line sells for $2. It sold for $5 in Denver, in '59, and that too, as far back as the middle of a mile line!

Paper flour sacks are among the new inventions of the day. They are in common use in the Eastern States, are said to be cheap and durable and better than muslin or drilling, from the fact that they do not waste the flour nor absorb dirt.

J. W. Whitlatch, the representative man of the Edgerton County, Montana, quartz prospectors, is in town, and on his way East, whither he goes with the intention of purchasing machinery for the development of his lodes.

Hon. K. D. Holbrook, Delegate elect to Congress from Idaho Territory, arrived here recently, en route to Washington. He was present at the grand dinner given Gen. Connor, and made a brief speech.

That was a splendid speech by Capt. Hempstead, at the Dinner, Thursday last. As an effort of after-dinner oratory, it was able and appropriate; and the brief response, it was applauded for its arguments and facts.

Order of Arrangement.—Theatrical performances [illegible] tonight.

The Officers will have a grand ball in the Camp Theatre, on Monday night; and the best time, Tuesday, the gallant Soldiers of Camp will have another.

The Reese River Reveille, of the 23d, has a unique dispatch from Carson, Nev., 21st, saying:

H. K. Mitchell is nominated for Congress by acclamation. He will come to Lander. Particulars to-morrow. All take a drink!

A pair of rushways was all that was astir in town on Thursday, (and yesterday as well,) save that clouds of dust that darkened as they started through the "ambient air" in rear of that long line of carriages in General Connor's escort, as they sallied down past Brigham's door, and through the town, triumphantly.

Change in the Weather.—For the last four and twenty hours, the clerk of the weather has "poured on us," and threatened to let grim-visaged Winter down upon us with cold and sleet and snow and storm generally. Those mountain tops are already snow-clad, all around.

Home Again.—Abel Gilbert, Esq. than whom few finer men or merchants can be scared up in this City of the Saints, got back from the southern section of the Territory, on Tuesday last. Also returned, same time, Hon. Judge McCurdy, from an official visit to his the southern circuit. "Items" from these gentlemen will appear at the earliest opportunity.

Montana Markets.—On the 21st, the Virginia City Post's quotations (dust) for Salt Lake flour are $17 and $18, an advance of fifty cents per hundred since our last. Bacon (best) was 50c; ham, best 55c; lard 45 to 50c; candles 55 to 90 cents; sugars 53 to 60c; coffee $1; teas $3.50 to $5 75; Cash butter 75c; Home Ranch butter $1 40. Teas were coming in from California, via Idaho. Whisky was giving out, and the market was becoming bare of all kinds of liquors. The Post adds: "Unless we have arrivals of this staple soon, we look for a considerable advance in prices."

Overland.—Wm. T. Coleman, merchant, and E. W. Perry, artist, left this city together on Monday bound for the the East, by the Overland route. They have a stage to themselves. Mr Coleman will go [illegible] Mr. Perry will stop at Salt Lake, for the purpose of painting in that vicinity.

So says the S. F. Bulletin of the 19th. Mr. Perry has arrived, and is painting at the Salt Lake House. Mr. Coleman started, but after going [illegible] the foot of Jackson street (San Francisco,) he concluded to hold over a while. We welcome such able artists as Perry to this place. Coleman is generally known to be perhaps the biggest merchant of California. His having expended much effort and an immense amount of money [illegible] influence and oppose the republican reconstruction [illegible] the people of the Golden State.

The Central Pacific Railroad Company have resolved to make all their tunnels through the Sierras large enough for a double track, which will be required for the Nevada, Utah, Idaho and Montana business, after the line is completed from the Missouri river.

A weekly paper at Gilroy is much lauded by several of the Willamette Valley newspapers. Several brilliantly written articles have been written to prove that "Coberg yearlings" are as big as three year old steers of the common breeds. In the absence of anything better to dispute about, horses furnish a good theme.

The Walla Walla and Boise papers have broached the idea of a mining convention, designed to represent the mining interests of Nevada, Oregon, Idaho, Utah, Colorado and Montana, and to act on national and local legislation by an authoritative exposition of the views of miners on all questions affecting their rights and interests.

Friendly for Once.—The Owyhee Avalanche gives an account of a fight between some of the Nevada Cavalry and a large force of Indians, on Queen's River, sixty miles south of Owyhee. Thirty-nine Indians were rendered permanently friendly, with but trifling loss to the whites. A considerable amount of stock was captured from the red skins.

Please Correct It.—In the columns of the Chicago Republican—the largest and by a long way the best edited paper perhaps in North America, to any impartial eye that constantly sees it—we find the following telegram, to the associated press:

A Quick Trip.—Salt Lake, Oct. 8.—Louis McLane, superintendent of Wells & Fargo's express, arrived here to-day, from San Francisco, having made the trip in seven days and seventeen hours. He came by stage 700 miles, including 100 miles over the Sierra Nevada, in 78 hours. This is the quickest trip ever made.

Now this "seven days and seventeen hours" should have been five days and seventeen hours; and we want all you eastern editors who published the above erroneous dispatch to correct it in your next, so as to give far-western folks due credit for being fast, as by right we are. D'ye hear?

To weep at...

A violet grew on the grave,
Its silent watch to keep;
The dew-drops moistened that cherished flower,
...

Burst through the clouds above;
Its beams in the dew drops sparkled now,
They were changed in tears of love.

Came a thought that gave it rest;
The chastening hand that had cruel seemed,
With fervency she blessed.

On the stone her ... lips
Impressed a gentle kiss;
For though in the world she struggled on,
Her mother was now in bliss.

SOME men can't bear to have a leg cut off. Others can lose "flesh of their flesh" and "bone of their bone" without a murmur.

"ALL bitters have a heating tendency or effect," said a doctor to a young lady. "You will excuse bitter, I shall nothing, won't you, doctor?" inquired the lady.

A PRETTY girl and a wild horse are liable to do much mischief, for the one runs away with a fellow's body and the other runs away with the heart.

WHAT is the difference between ... and an angler? The former frequently "drops lines" to his sweetheart, while the latter is addicted to dropping lines to the finny tribes.

... how the lovers the flowers reached across and kissed each other, while the brook, shining below, "laughed to see the sight."

A Western paper describes brandy manufactured from watermelons, and prononnces it excellent. This is about the next thing to extracting sunbeams from cucumbers."

THE New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger says that potographs of the New York bank tellers encumber the pockets of the detectives who watch the Broadway concert saloons.

A MISSOURI Postmaster thus expresses his opinion that his official returns are correct: "I hereby certify that the four going A Counte is as near Rite as I no how to make it if there is any mistake it is not Dun a purpers."
